

TERMS OF USE – DIBS CHECKOUT

Version 2017-09-21

By choosing to use the feature save my billing information (fakturauppgifter) or save my card in the checkout feature you accept these terms of use (“Terms”) for the checkout service (the “Service”).

The Terms are entered into between you and DIBS Payment Service AB (publ), Business Registration Number 556500-5021, Kungsgatan 32, SE-111 35 Stockholm, Sweden, (“DIBS”) and states the terms and conditions for use of the Service. Further the Terms describe how the Service works, and how personal data is collected and processed by DIBS in connection with the Service. Your purchase of goods, services etc. from a merchant is not regulated by these Terms, but by the agreement you have or will enter into with the merchant.

The Service is a "checkout" feature to simplify the payment process when purchasing at a merchant online. Once you have stored your personal information and/ or card details, the Service will recognize you when you return to a website that is using a payment solution from DIBS and will display billing information and/ or the card details when you open the payment window. The information that is stored is your name, delivery address, e-mail address, mobile phone number, the card number and the expiry date.

DIBS are the data controller for the stored information. See www.dibs.se for contact information. DIBS will only use the stored information to provide the Service and to ensure the identity of customers, prevent abuse or misuse of the Service, perform customer analysis, make credit assessments, risk analysis, risk management, business development, commercial and marketing purposes, both for DIBS and selected partners as well as for regulatory compliance.

A stored card will be available until the card expires. You may also choose to delete the card and billing information. If you have not used the Service for 18 months, the stored information will be deleted automatically.

Data security measures have been taken to safeguard your personal information as well as card details. For example will your card details be transferred by an encrypted Internet connection and stored in a secure PCI DSS certified IT-environment.

The Service can recognize you via your device, cookie data, your IP-address or MAC-address only if the site is using a payment solution from DIBS. It is free to use the Service.

You can delete the information stored with DIBS whenever you want. You do so by clicking on "delete a card" and/ or amend the billing information directly in the payment window. You can also contact DIBS and ask for your information to be deleted - see www.dibs.se for our contact information

DIBS is not responsible for any unauthorized transactions on the card. In the event of misuse of your card, please contact your bank or misuse of you billing information, please contact the acquirer of invoice transactions.

You have the right of access to the personal data being processed by DIBS and the right to rectify data. DIBS may transfer personal data to its group of companies where necessary to provide the Service. A list of group companies can be found on www.nets.eu.

If we update these terms, you will be notified of the changes in the payment window.
